

All members of the College are warmly invited to use the Chapel as a place for quiet reflection and prayer. The services are conducted according to the rites of the Church of England, but everyone of whatever faith is welcome to attend, and Christians of every denomination are welcome to receive Holy Communion. All the services are also open to the public. The main service is on Sunday at 5.45 p.m. and Evensong is also sung on some Mondays and every Tuesday. Every Thursday there is a Choral Eucharist or Evensong.

The Chaplain

The Chaplain is the Rev'd Dr. Jonathan Arnold, who is an Anglican Priest. He is happy to meet and talk to everyone in College at any time, so do not hesitate to contact him about all kinds of matters. His room is Nuffield 11 (telephone 278371). His email is jonathan.arnold@worc.ox.ac.uk

The Woodroffe Society

Every Monday lunchtime from 12.30 p.m. until 2.00 p.m. a group meets in the Chaplain's room for a free lunch to talk about such topics as ethics, the arts, science and religion, faith, doubt, the bible or just life. All are welcome to this open, non-judgmental and frank discussion group. If you are interested in joining this group then please then please speak to the Chaplain or just come along.

The Woodroffe Society Dinner

The Society Dinner is open to all members of College and provides a forum to discuss moral, ethical and religious issues. This term the society meets at 7 p.m. on Monday 23rd May (fifth week) in the Linbury Building for a formal dinner (£10 on battels). The speaker will be Claire Foster-Gilbert, Director of the Westminster Abbey Institute, who will be speaking on 'Leadership in public office: a hero's journey.' If you would like to come to this event, and for details of the speaker, please contact the Chaplain.
